

The Boston Globe's All-Scholastics Fall 2006

---

Dana Jamieson, Lincoln-Sudbury

► JUNIOR

Lincoln-Sudbury, a team that had no seniors on its roster, was regarded as one of the best Division 1 teams in the state this season, winning the Bay State Invitational, the Boston Invitational, and the EMass meet. A large part of the Warriors' success can be attributed to Dana Jamieson. A junior, this was Jamieson's first year running cross-country, but she emerged as the Warriors' top runner, finishing second in the Bay State (19:53) and eighth in the EMass meet (19:43). She was third at All-States (19:32), leading her team to a second-place finish. She lists painting as a hobby.
